

FINAL EXERCISES OF MEDICAL COLLEGES

"Old" College Students Hear Sermon at St. Paul's; "New" at Broad Street Methodist.

SCHEDULES AS ANNOUNCED

"New" College at Academy and "Old" College at City Auditorium.

The commencement exercises of the two medical colleges located in this city begin with baccalaureate sermons to-night, and will continue through several days, with a succession of receptions and graduating exercises.

The schedule announced for the Medical College of Virginia opens to-night with the annual sermon before the graduating class by the Rev. Robert W. Forsyth, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The schedule for Monday and Tuesday is as follows:

MONDAY.

12:00 P. M.—Clinic on Gynecology, Dr. Charles R. Robins.

1:00 P. M.—Clinic on Surgery, Dr. J. Shelton Horsley.

2:00 P. M.—Clinic on Eye and Ear, Dr. John P. McFarland.

HIBERNIANS WILL HAVE BIG MEETING

Several National Officers Will Pay Visit to Richmond This Week.

Division No. 11, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will have a meeting in Lee Camp Hall on Wednesday night, at which time the degrees of the order will be exemplified by members of the State team. Mr. Patrick T. Hattigan, editor of the National Hibernian; National Directors P. T. Moran, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. W. J. O'Brien, of Philadelphia; also State Officers Joseph L. Burke and John T. Flood, of Norfolk, will be on hand and will speak on the good of the order. Mr. R. T. Brophy, of the entertainment committee, will look after the refreshments. The Hibernians of Norfolk, James J. Creamer and James L. Doherty will each make short addresses.

This meeting is for all Hibernians in good standing, and County President Thomas A. Reddin says those who miss this opportunity of hearing the national officers will regret it.

RAILROADS BUY JAMESTOWN BONDS

Announcement Made That Transportation Lines About Norfolk Will Take $160,000.

NORFOLK, May 18.—Announcement was made to-day that the railway interests in and about Norfolk will certainly take $160,000 of the $400,000 bond issue, needed to complete the Jamestown Exposition, the Norfolk banks having already taken $100,000 of the issue. This only leaves $140,000 to be floated.

The Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company is aiding the exposition in every way possible. Mr. Lancaster Williams is president of the railway. An offer came from Philadelphia to take over the entire bond issue of $400,000 at something like $1.50, but this was declined.
